Our theme for the next fortnight is 'Kindness'

We will think about how we can be kind to others, kind to ourselves and how our keyworkers are showing kindness to people who need them.

Kindness
is Magic

It is so important to make sure your child is reading while they are staying at home. Here are some links for spelling and grammar games as well as a link for some online reading.

Reading

Here is a link for Oxford Owl which offers free access to child friendly texts!

Oxford Owl

Here are two examples of texts your child could read:

Fiction: Here Comes Trouble

Non-Fiction: Great Artists

You will need to register for a login for your child.

If your child is currently reading a book they enjoy, please share it with us.

We'd love to know!

Monday

Brainstorm a list of keyworkers who are helping us during this time.

Choose one key worker and draw a picture of them. It may be someone you know!

Remember to take your time and take care with your detail.

Tuesday

On Tuesday 12th May it is International Nurses Day which is celebrated on Florence Nightingale's birthday.

Your task is to describe why Florence Nightingale was so significant(important). You can choose how you do this. You could create a fact file, poster, paragraph or a PowerPoint! If you have any other ideas, these are okay too! Here are some points you can include:

- Who was Florence Nightingale? (Name, date of birth, where did she live and family life)
- Why was it unlikely she would become a nurse?
- What did she do? What is she known for?
- How has she influenced nursing today?

Friday

Design or create a medal you would give to our key workers. I'm sure we can all agree that they are pretty amazing!

Here are some points to think about or discuss with an adult.

- What is it made out of?
- Why is your medal so special?
- Why do our keyworkers deserve this medal?

You may want to use this video to help you draw a medal.

Activities WB 11.5.2020

Here are some activities linked to our theme.

Each activity is assigned to a day of the week if you prefer to work in this way. If not, please choose to complete these activities in any order you wish!

Wednesday

Take part in the kindness dance! You may want to learn it from memory or create your own actions or dance to the song!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zZoM30OFvIA>

Thursday

Create a kindness potion. Think about your ingredients – What do you need to include to be kind?

Example: a loving hug, a friendly smile or 2 helping hands.

Write a set of instructions to explain how to make your kindness potion. You may want to draw diagrams to help you!

Monday

Remember to be kind to yourself!

Write an acrostic poem about you!

Write your name vertically and fill the poem with things that make you special or things that you are good at.

Tuesday

Being kind to someone can just be smiling at someone and saying 'Hello'. This may make someone happy if they are having a bad day.

Listen to this song and learn how to say 'hello' in different languages!

Wednesday

Create a 'Smile-a-Gram' which includes a compliment or a message that will make someone smile. You may want to write 3 or 4 and stick them on your window for people to see while they pass, leave them around the house for someone to find or hang them on a tree while you go on a walk for others to find and make them smile. (See resources)

Example:

Thank you to our key workers for doing such a spectacular, amazing and fantastic job.

You are kind, you are special and you are incredible!

Don't forget to decorate it!

Activities WB 18.5.2020

Here are some activities linked to our theme.

Each activity is assigned to a day of the week if you prefer to work in this way. If not, please choose to complete these activities in any order you wish!

Friday

Listen to the story of the 'Lion and the Mouse'.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GxcGVCEEdcU> Follow the step-by-step guide to complete the experiment to show how big actions and small actions can cause a ripple effect. (The guide will be uploaded to the website)

Thursday

Learn how to say thank you to our key workers using British Sign Language!
