Our theme for the next fortnight is 'Kindness'

We will think about how we can be kind to others, kind to ourselves and how our keyworkers are showing kindness to people who need them.

What five questions would you like to ask Florence Nightingale?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zrqqtfr/articles/z3dbg82>

Watch this clip about tenses.

Can you write a sentence about Florence Nightingale in the past tense?
Our Nurses in the present tense and future tense?

EG- Our nurses have worked very hard to help everyone feel better and safe.

Our nurses are working super hard to keep us safe and well.

Write a few sentences about how you have been kind this week. You might want to make a list of all the things you might have done!
(remember to use commas)

Reading

Here is a link for Oxford Owl which offers free access to child friendly texts!

(You will need to create a login to access the books)

Oxford Owl

If your child is currently reading a book they enjoy, please share that with us.

We'd love to know!

David Walliams is sharing a free audio book on his website each day

<https://www.worldofdavidwalliams.com/>

It is so important to make sure your child is reading while they are staying at home. Here are some links for spelling and grammar games as well as a link for some online reading.

Complete the Florence
Nightingale comprehension.

See Resources (no need to print just write the answers down!)

On Tuesday 12th May it is International Nurses Day which is celebrated on Florence Nightingale's birthday.

Write a paragraph about Florence Nightingale or a fact file to describe why she is so important and why we remember her today.

Here are some points you can include:

- Who was Florence Nightingale? (Name, date of birth, where did she live and family life)
- What did she do? What is she known for?
- How has she influenced nursing today?
- Any interesting facts!

Create your very own memorial shield to remember Florence Nightingale.

Think about what she has done for nursing and the amazing work all the nurses do today because of her!

Here are some activities linked to our theme.

Each activity is assigned to a day of the week if you prefer to work in this way. If not, please choose to complete these activities in any order you wish!

Choose a key worker and describe how they are amazing and how they are a real-life superhero!

Draw the key worker and label how they are amazing and super kind.

Create your very own friendship flower. Use your pens and book.

Monday

Think about what you need to do to be kind!

Write a short poem/ song to describe how you are kind. How it makes people feel.

Starting with 'It's cool to be kind because.....

I can't wait to see what you come up with! Don't forget to decorate!

The KINDness Song
Lyrics by Barbara Gruener
It's so cool to be kind,
It starts right here with me.
Just cool to be kind;
Sprinkle kindness and see.
It's way cool to be kind
Bucket Fillers we'll be.
Hey friend, it really is cool to be kind!

Friday

Listen to the number song in French. Can you sing along? Can you use the numbers today in French?

Tuesday

Write a letter to someone of your choice, letting them know why you are thinking of them. Write to tell them how amazing you think they are in their own special way!

Things you could write about in your letter:

- Why do you think this person is so great/special?
- What do you like about that person?
- What do you think that person is really good at?
- Why do you think that person is a great friend/parent/keyworker?

Activities WB 18.5.2020
