Class 5 English Planning—WB: 18.1.2021

	Objective	Activity
Mon	Comprehension	Have a go at the comprehension questions from the text. (The comprehension will be in the home learning area on the Class 5 page).
Tue	To understand features of a diary entry	I have added an example diary entry to the Home Learning area. There is a checklist to show features of a diary entry – can you underline/highlight all of the features? When we write our diary entry, we need to make sure we are including these features to make sure our writing genre is correct.
Wed	To plan a diary entry	I would like you to plan the first half of your diary entry today. I have included the plot points you need to cover in your diary entry, as well as an example diary entry as Toki, in the home learning area. Please feel free to borrow a few ideas from my example if you need to. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=29fIGlr0cuQ
Thu	To plan a diary entry	I would like you to finish your diary plan today. Once again please refer to the plot points in the Home Learning area to guide your planning and the example to give you some ideas for your writing if you want a helping hand. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=29fIGlr0cuQ
Fri	To write up our diary entry	I would like you today to write up your final version of your diary entry today. If you wish to type it up then please email me your writing when it is finished. If you would rather handwrite your work it would be nice to see a photograph of your writing so I can see all of your hard work. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=29fIGlr0cuQ

I would also like you to use Reading Plus each day to practice key reading skills. Reading Plus should be used for at least 20 minutes a day.

If you have been placed on hold or need a reminder of your username/password then please send me an email.
