

ANSWERS

I'm

can't

don't won't didn't isn't

Contractions

Match the contractions to the words with the same meaning.

it is not

I am

cannot

did not

would not do not

Apostrophes for Possession

Look at the red sentences below. Notice how the first one has been rewritten to use an apostrophe to show possession.

The crayons belonged to Duncan.

They were Duncan's crayons.

A. Read each of the sentences below and rewrite so that an apostrophe is used for possession.

1. The wrapper from the crayon had been pulled off.
2. The drawing by the boy was given a gold star.
3. The pink crayon was used by the sister of Duncan.
4. The colour of the sun is yellow.

B. Which sentence has been punctuated correctly?

1. The car's wheels turned. OR The cars wheel's turned.
2. Jill's felt tips ran out. OR Jill's felt tip's ran out.
3. The crayon's weren't happy. OR The crayons weren't happy.