

Art/Writing

Draw your perfect house. Is it made out of straw? Is it big like a castle? Is it small like a tent?

Write: Describe your perfect house. How many rooms has it got? What is it made out of? Who lives there with you?

Science

Task 1: Look at this online activity that looks at the life cycle of a flower.

Flower

Task 2: Draw your own life cycle of a flower in your books.

Extra: Why not try ordering some of the other life cycles on the website above.

Geography

Use your imagination to draw a map for the three little pigs to give to their mam so that she can come to visit them.

You could include a road, some trees, a river, a shop etc

Music

Task 1: Watch this Disney Symphony of the story of The Three Little Pigs.

Activities WB 25.1.2021

This week we will continue to concentrate on Traditional Tales in our literacy— our activities will focus on the story of The Three Little Pigs

Please work through the activities at your own pace.

English

This week we are going to be using exclamation marks in our writing.

This is an exclamation mark. Exclamation marks tell us when a character is shouting or speaking loudly.

Task: In your books draw characters from the story who shout or speak loudly and write an exclamation sentence for each character.

E.g

DT

Draw a picture of one (or all) of the little pigs house on some paper.

Task: Can you find a way to make the door open and shut?

Clue: You might need some scissors.

Extra: Can you make a window open and shut?

Reading

Listen to this popular traditional tale.
