HOW WILL THEY BE ASSESSED?

At the start of the course they will be asked to complete a diagnostic assessment to confirm strengths and areas of improvements. After being taught through classroom sessions and practical activities they will complete a paper-based or online assessment on an agreed date.

WHERE WILL THE COURSES BE HELD?

- Beacon of Light (days and evenings)
- Local community settings
- Employers premises
- Distance learning

WHAT IS DISTANCE LEARNING?

Distance learning courses are completed in their own time so you don't need to attend sessions (apart from exams). They will be sent all study resources via email and will be provided with deadline dates. Once completed workbooks and assignments need to be submitted, with available support from a qualified tutor.

You will gain valuable transferable skills such as:

- Planning
- Research
- Self-motivation

The flexible courses mean they can choose when and how to study, and work around other commitments.
